About the Program

January 3 marks the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule, known for her contribution to the field of women's education, Savitribai Phule was born on January 3, 1831, in Maharashtra’s Satara district in a country ruled by the Britishers, where women's rights were non-existent. She is widely regarded as a woman teacher who campaigned to create awareness of the need for education for women. A feminist icon, Phule fought against patriarchy and casteism and faced countless hardships in the process. The first woman teacher, who was way ahead of her times and the first female educationist of India was also the first female poetess. She wrote a poem entitled 'Go, Get Education' which encouraged people to free themselves from oppression by educating themselves.

Mahatma Jyotirao and Savitribai Phule stand out as a great couple in the social and educational history of India. They spearheaded path-breaking work towards female education and empowerment and ending caste- and gender-based discrimination. So, on the occasion of the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule on January 03, ICERT is organizing a symposium on “Recent Trends in Education and Its Relevance with Savitribai Phule’s ideas”.
