

Brief Profile

Dr. S.K. Singhmar

Chairman International Council for Education Research and Training

Honorable Member World Humans Rights Protection Commission

Dr. Sandeep Kumar Singhmar has over 20 year's professional experience in higher education and School education teaching. During this time he has gained extensive experience in teaching, editor in college magazine and editor in KUK University magazine "Kalanidhi" in 2001-02. His academic interest lies in language development, linguistic research, pedagogical researches, and developing quality education scenarios in school & higher education. He has completed his Doctorate in Hindi, Master in Hindi, Master in Education, Bachelor in Education, Bachelor in Hindi (Hon.) and Doctor of Letters. As trainer/ resource person, he has trained the teacher on various pedagogic skills in higher education with HRDCs in various Universities. Being a keen learning attitude, he has written and presented many research papers in more than 100 National and International seminars/ conferences on teaching methodology in schools, curriculum, and school education, Hkkjrh; /keZ] laLd`fr ,oa tulapkj and more themes on Hindi Language, Literature and Journalisam. As an innovator, he is still doing research on various aspects of school and higher education. He has been awarded with a number of prestigious awards by various universities and other social organizations. He is also associated as editorial board member in various organizations.